Notes for TIMOTHY CALLAGHAN:

Obituary - Haverhill Gazette, Wednesday, July 27, 1892:

Timothy Callahan

His Funeral From St. James Church This Morning.

The last sad rights [sic] over the remains of the late Timothy Callahan were solemnized [sic] at 8:30 o'clock this morning at St. James church. Solemn high mass was said by Rev. Fr. Graham.

There was a large attendance, including relatives and friends. The deceased was a native of Millstreet, County Cork, Ireland, and had been a resident here at No. 11 Maple street for the past three years. He had been in the employ of the city and was regarded as an industrious citizen and made many friends among those with whom he had associated.

The floral tribute were [sic] many and beautiful, the most noticeable being a cross with the inscription "Father" from the daughters. The pall bearers were four nephews of the deceased, Timothy, John G., Daniel and Dennis, and John T. Callaghan and Jeremiah Dennehy. The interment was in the St. James cemetery.

Item - Haverhill Gazette, Tuesday, July 26, 1892:

CALLAHAN--In this city, July 26, Timothy Callahan, aged 53 years, 7 months. Burial from St. James church Wednesday. Interment in Catholic cemetery.

Notes for CATHERINE SULLIVAN:

Obituary - Haverhill Gazette, Friday, July 6, 1900:

Mrs. Catherine Callahan, widow of the late Timothy Callahan, died at 4:30 this morning at her home, 43 Sheridan Street, at the age of 57. She has been an invalid for several months past, but her condition has not been of late regarded as serious and her demise is a painful shock to her relatives and friends. She leaves five daughters and one son--Mrs. Michael Melody, Mrs. Timothy O'Connell, Mrs. John Howard, Miss Julia Callahan, Miss Bessie Callahan and Jeremiah Callahan. Besides these, she leaves several grandchildren. She had been a resident of this city for many years, and had made many friends here by whom her death is greatly regretted, depriving them of a valued associate. The funeral will be held from St. James' church at 7:30 Monday.
