Notes

According to RIC service records, William Cash was from Co. Monaghan. He was 5'9¾" tall. He was born on June 5, 1861. He was Catholic. He joined the RIC on December 13, 1880, earned some rewards and received some reprimands. He was stationed in Limerick and Cork city. He was pensioned in 1906. His wedding date was 14 April 1894. His service number was 46144.

The recording of his marriage to Elizabeth Sullivan is confusing. Their eldest daughters, Catherine and Julia, were born in 1889 and 1891, respectively, dates which predate the 1894 marriage. These two girls were baptized in Brosna according to the church records, but no civil registration has been found.

In the 1901 Census of Ireland, in Boherbue, Co. Cork the family is enumerated as follows:

Lizzie Cash, head, 30 years old
 Lizzie Cash, daughter, 6 years old
 Mary Cash, daughter, 3 years old
 Tessie Cash, daughter, 2 years old
 William Cash, son, 1 year old
 Catherine O'Sullivan, niece, 11 years old

Because he was a constable, William Cash was enumerated on a separate form. He is shown as 40 years old.

In the 1911 Census of Ireland, the family is enumerated as follows:

William Cash, head, age 50, RIC pensioner
 Lizzie Cash, wife, 45, married 18 years, 7 of 10 children are alive
 ? Cash, daughter, age 16
 May Cash, daughter, age 14
 William Cash, son, age 11
 Lena Cash, daughter, age 8
 John Cash, son, age 3

The family had 10 children:

Catherine Cash (January 1889-March 26, 1917) died in Co. Cork, Ireland
 Julia Cash (February 1890-September 7, 1914) married Michael J. Wrenn in Haverhill, MA; died in Co. Cork, Ireland
 Elizabeth "Lil" Cash (June 25, 1895- February 24, 1981) married Michael J. Wrenn in Haverhill, MA
 Mary "May" Ellen Cash (December 8, 1896-May 18, 1964) married Patrick Linehan in Massachusetts
 Theresa "Tessie" Cash (1898-September 1, 1901) died in Co. Cork, Ireland
 William Christopher Cash (January 6, 1900-December 18, 1945) married Nellie Callahan in Haverhill, MA
 Helena "Lena" Cash (November 27, 1902-1956) never married
 John Cash (1904-August 30, 1906) died in Co. Cork, Ireland
 Margaret Cash (October 1906-December 4, 1906) died in Co. Cork, Ireland
 John Patrick Cash (August 31, 1907-July 1, 1979) married Helen Theresa Finneral in Massachusetts

By 1914 the remaining family members who had not immigrated to the US were living at 7 Mayfield in Cork City, Co. Cork, Ireland. While at this address, his eldest daughters Julia and Catherine and his wife Lizzie all died from phthisis (tuberculosis).

During the War for Independence, William Cash is said to have hidden guns under a tree in his yard for use by the Irish Republican Army.

William Cash died on September 18, 1926 in the Cork District Hospital in Cork, Co. Cork, Ireland. The cause of death was obstruction of bowels after 14 days in the hospital. After his death, John and Helena, his remaining children in Ireland, immigrated to Haverhill, MA.

Notes

Catherine Cash was the firstborn of William Cash and Elizabeth Sullivan. The Brosna, County Kerry baptism records show that she was baptized on January 30, 1889. The witnesses at her baptism were John O'Sullivan and Mary O'Sullivan. I have not found a civil registration of her birth.

On July 4th, 1904, at the age of 14, she sailed from Queenstown on the S. S. _____. Her destination was Haverhill, MA. Her father is listed as William Cash of Boherbue. A friend is listed as Mrs. Nolan.

In the 1910 Federal Census (ED 324, sheet 8A), she (age 20) and her sister Julia (age 18) are living at 11 Norfolk Street in Haverhill, MA with the family of Daniel and Margaret Sullivan. Margaret Sullivan, who immigrated in 1895, was the sister of Catherine's mother.

On September 18, 1912, at the age of 23, she sailed from Queenstown on the S. S. Franconia. Her destination was Haverhill. Her father is listed as William Cash of Boherbue. She sailed with her 17-year-old sister, Elizabeth.

According to family tradition, she returned to Ireland with her sister Julia, who had consumption.

She died on March 26, 1917 at the age of 28 in Cork City, Ireland. According to the death certificate, she died of phthisis (pulmonary tuberculosis). The duration of her illness was 12 months. Her occupation was given as a machinist. Her mother, Lizzie, was present at her death.

Notes

According to the Brosna, Co. Kerry baptism records, Julia Cash was baptized on March 1, 1891. The witnesses at her baptism were Michael O'Sullivan and Bridget O'Sullivan, probably her mother's siblings. I have not found a civil registration of her birth.

In the 1910 Federal Census (ED 324, sheet 8A), she (age 18) and her sister Catherine (age 20) are living at 11 Norfolk Street in Haverhill, MA with the family of Daniel and Margaret Sullivan. Margaret Sullivan, who immigrated in 1895, was the sister of Julia's mother.

In 1913 she married Michael Wrenn in Haverhill, MA. According to family story, she became ill with tuberculosis and returned to Ireland to die.

She died on September 7, 1914 at the age of 23 in Cork City, Ireland. According to the death certificate, she died of phthisis (pulmonary tuberculosis). The duration of her illness was 4 months. Her mother, Lizzie, was present at her death.

Notes

According to his birth certificate, William Cash was born on January 6, 1900 in Paulacurry, Co. Cork, Ireland. His parents were William Cash, a constable in the Royal Irish Constabulary, and Elizabeth "Lizzie" Sullivan.

On March 30, 1921, William sailed from Queenstown, Ireland, for America on the S. S. Carmania. He arrived at Ellis Island, New York on April 8, 1921. The passenger list identifies him as a clerk, who could read and write English. His final destination is given as Haverhill, Massachusetts. He is 21 years old, 5' 9", fair complexion and hair, grey eyes. His father is identified as William Cash of 7 Mayfield, Cork. His sister is identified as Mrs. May Linehan of 93 8th Avenue, Haverhill, MA.

He married Nellie Callaghan on April 29, 1922 in Haverhill, MA.

On March 26, 1926, William Cash filed a Declaration of Intention to become a US citizen in the District Court of New York. His application notes that he is 26, 5'9", ruddy complexion, light brown hair, and grey eyes. According to this document, he was residing with his wife, Nellie, at 204 East 76th Street, New York, NY.

On May 25, 1928, William filed a Petition for Naturalization in the Superior Court of Massachusetts at Lawrence. His occupation is given as a laborer. He and his wife, Nellie, were living at 12 Florence Ave., Haverhill, Mass. The form indicates that he had lived continuously in Massachusetts since May 31, 1926. He and Nellie must have moved back to Haverhill on May 31, 1926.

William became a US citizen on September 17, 1928. The number on his naturalization certificate is 2765543.
